

Health Promotion Perspectives is covered by ESCI 2018 onwards

Health Promotion Perspectives (HPP) has been accepted for inclusion in Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI).

Health Promotion Perspectives publishes research aimed at understanding implications and approaches to health promotion and public health. HPP is published by TUOMS Publishing Group, and now covered in ESCI starting with 2018 onwards.

According to Clarivate, Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI) is a Web of Science Core Collection index and reflects the growing global body of science and scholarly activity.
